

Evergreen Speedway IBEW-NECA 90-Minutes of FEAR Night at the Races Results

For Immediate Release (June 23): The 'World's Most Dangerous Intersection' was the deciding factor on who won their segment of the annual 90-Minutes of FEAR at Evergreen Speedway on Saturday night June 22nd. The winner of the NASCAR Outlaw Figure 8's 30-minute segment was Doug Wilkinson (Lake Stevens, WA). NASCAR Grocery Outlet of Monroe Super Stock Figure 8 winner after their 30-minute segment was Quenton Borreson (Aberdeen, WA) and in the final segment, the winner was Dawson Cox (Arlington, WA) in his Buzz Inn Steakhouse Stinger 8. In addition to the 90-minutes of FEAR, the popular Interstate Batteries Youth Hornets were back in action. Cody Kooy (Snohomish, WA) was victorious. The WMRA (Washington Midget Racing Association) traveling series dropped in and veteran Tony Seidelman was the winner after 20-laps on the 3/8-mile oval. Also stopping by was the traveling NW Pro 4 Truck Tour. Rack up another win for Pete Brady on Evergreen's 3/8-mile oval.

Next up at Evergreen Speedway, in Monroe, WA, is the 8th Annual Summer Showdown on June 29th & 30th. The best Super Late Model drivers from around the US and Canada will take to the 'Monster' 5/8-mile oval for 200-Laps on the Northwest's largest track. They will also be vying for the Northwest's largest prize money with the winner garnering $25,000.00. In addition to the big race the Street Stocks, Mini-Stocks and Legends will be in action. Gates will open on Saturday at 4:30pm and on Sunday at 11:00am. For tickets go to www.evergreenspeedway.com or call 360-805-6100.
